OUTREACH & HUMANE EDUCATION INTERN

Who We Are

Founded in 1867, The Pennsylvania SPCA is a non-profit organization with headquarters located in Philadelphia. Our mission is to protect animals, prevent cruelty, and improve the health and quality of life for animals in Pennsylvania. We are the state's oldest, largest, and most comprehensive animal welfare organization. The PSPCA Humane Education program is the only full-time program of its kind in Philly.

Who You Are

We are seeking a self-motivated college student to support our Outreach and Humane Education program. We're looking for a fast learner, critical thinker, and self-motivated individual committed to social justice work that builds access to resources and community awareness around issues in animal welfare.

Primary responsibilities include but are not limited to:

- Research and create interactive activities for learners of all ages;
- Assist with presentation and outreach timeline and logistics;
- Collect and utilize data to determine organizational and community needs;
- Support services and data input for a new pet retention program;
- Participate in community canvasses in low-income neighborhoods; and
- Take part in leading and organizing a free pet food pantry.

Desired Experience & Skills:

- Pursuing Bachelor's or Master's (any and all fields will be considered);
- Able to attend on- and off-site presentations;
- Excellent communication skills, with small and large groups as well as all ages and backgrounds;
- Excellent computer skills, including Microsoft Office programs;
- Passionate about social change through the work of the PSPCA;
- Committed to non-judgmental education, with a passion for both animals and people;
- Able to work in a fast, paced mission-driven environment; and
- Able to think outside the box and be solution-oriented.

Compensation

The Outreach and Humane Education Intern is an unpaid internship. Students receiving work study funds or grants through their learning institution are encouraged to apply.

Supervisor
